Dear Tim,
I have a series of good portraits of Ehud from 2008 (which rights belong to us. I would only ask to cite the credit of the photographer).
Do you think that the jacket photo should be a portrait or an “action” one or two photos from previous periods, for example as chief of staff or earlier?
I send you some examples of the portraits in separate mails.

Dear Nili,

I hope this message finds you well. It was great to have the opportunity to talk more with Ehud about the book's big themes last week.

I'm writing to see how it goes with the photos. Do you expect to send them soon?

I ask because the jacket has asked whether you have any photos of Ehud that you think would look particularly good on the jacket. We're not yet sure whether we'll use his image there, but we'd like to have that as one option. If you have any good quality photos of him that you think might work for that purpose, will you email them to me?

Thank you!

Tim
